Ahmedabad is the largest city in the state of Gujarat. It is located in western India on the banks of the River Sabarmati. The present city was founded on 26 February 1411 and announced as the capital on 4 March 1411 by Ahmed Shah I. For next 135 years(1572-1707), the city renewed greatness under the early rulers of Mughal Empire. The city again progressed when politically stabilized when British East India Company established the rule in the city (1818–1857). When Gujarat was carved out in 1960, it again became the capital of the state until establishment of Gandhinagar in 1965. Ahmedabad is also the cultural and economical centre of Gujarat and the seventh largest city of India.
